TRIPLE PLAY

Inside each box of 2019 Historic Autographs TRIPLE PLAY Baseball is a triple-folder baseball card with three authentic signatures that have a distinct connection. The overall attractiveness and solid construction of the booklet should make Triple Play an instant classic. Every box will also contain a single-signed cut signature, bringing the total to four autographs per box. Each triple-folder booklet comes with a full BAS letter of authenticity while the single cut signature card comes with either a PSA/DNA or BAS sticker hidden behind the autograph.

Look for All-Time Leaders cards that feature Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Mickey Mantle, Jimmie Foxx, Mel Ott as well as US Military veterans cards that features players who served our country in the armed services and also graced the diamond. So many men have dedicated their lives to protecting our country while still making a career in the game we love - this is our way of honoring them.

For every box of 2019 HA Triple Play produced (not just sold), HA will donate some of the proceeds to Military Missions in Action (www.https://www.militarymissionsinaction.org)

TRIPLE PLAY

The concept of 2019 Historic Autographs TRIPLE PLAY is to make both an attractive collectible card and tie together names from baseball history to tell a story. Some of the stories that Historic Autographs wants to "tell" is that of all the good men that served their country - many of their own choice. These men were willing to make the greatest sacrifice for our freedoms and to honor them, HA is donating a portion of every box produced to a military charity (Military Missions in Action) to aid those men and women who have served and still serving our great country.

Cards such as our World War I stand-outs include Ty Cobb, George Sisler and Branch Rickey (who all served in the same unit) or our World War II stand-outs with Hank Greenberg, Joe DiMaggio and Ted Williams cards (all HOFers who served in WW2).
