Did you know?

- Wilt Chamberlain averaged 48.5 minutes per game during the 1961-62 season even though NBA games are only 48 minutes long? He played every minute of every game plus overtime to set this amazing record.
- Bob Feller (1918-2010) was the first professional athlete to enlist during WW2? Fresh off a 25 win season and leading the league in punch outs, Bob enlisted two days after the attack on Pearl Harbor.
- Satchel Paige (1906-1982) is the oldest person ever to play in the Major Leagues? In 1965, Paige was signed by the Kansas City A's to start a game on a night to honor former Negro League players. He pitched three innings and only surrendered one hit.
- Each HA Did You Know? box has a greater than 1/4 chance of including an autograph card of one of the Trivia people?

Collect HA's Did You Know? cards for more trivia and the chance to hold an authentic autograph card of a famous person in the Trivia Cards.
